

SOLDOTNA PUBLIC LIBRARY CIRCULATION POLICY

Purpose

This policy provides written guidelines for borrower registration and circulation procedures.

REGISTRATION FOR LIBRARY CARDS

Before borrowing materials from the Library, patrons must obtain a Library card. Any Alaskan resident* who does not already hold a library card at another Public Library in the Alaska Library Catalog (ALC) system may obtain a free Library card by:

- Filling out and signing a Library Card Application (Parents/Legal Guardians of minors typically must sign in person at the Service Desk. Exceptions may be made for class visits, subject to prior approval by Library Administration)
- Providing a Current Phone Number or Email Address
- Providing Valid Photo Identification** for themselves or their Parent/Legal Guardian to Service Desk staff, AND
- Providing Valid Proof of Address*** for themselves or their Parent/Legal Guardian to Service Desk staff.

By signing the Library Card Application, patrons or their Parents/Legal Guardians accept responsibility for all materials borrowed, including overdue fines and replacement and/or damage fees for lost and/or damaged items. Patrons with cards in good standing at other ALC libraries may elect to replace their current card with a Soldotna Public Library card.

Temporary Cards

If Alaskan residents* are unable to provide Valid Proof of Address, but are able to provide Valid Photo Identification and a phone number or email address, they may obtain a Temporary Card under the following stipulations:
